FRED SNOWDEN, senior guard on Wayne State's basketball team, was named to a first team berth on the President's Athletic Conference team.

Winfield Henry, a junior, elected "Most Valuable Player" by his teammates and placed on the second team of the all-PAC squad. Henry led the team in scoring this season.

crowns during his regime. His varsity basketball slate shows an 87-8 mark.

In addition, Snowden took on baseball duties and led the Colts to city championships the past two years.

TWO WEEKS ago, Snowden was appointed the Northwestern athletic director—the youngest man in the league's history to achieve that honor, which he must now surrender.

The Detroiter becomes the second Negro to join the U-M staff. Ken Burnley, who prepped at Mumford, was recruited last month as a track assistant coach.

The Fox is living proof that big things DO come in small packages.
